

SNEC-ASHI Elects Warren Tomek as President

January 1, 2008

Warren Tomek was elected President of the Southern New England Chapter of the American Society of Home Inspectors (SNEC-ASHI). As President, Warren will act as Chairman of the Board of Directors and provide overall leadership for the Chapter. Warren has been a member of the Chapter since 2002. He held past positions of Vice President and Chairman of the Public Relations and Recognition Committees. “As President I look forward to serving the needs of the Chapter membership, upholding the duties of the position and promoting the benefits of using ASHI inspectors to our target markets”, said President Tomek.
